

STATINTL

Approved For Release 2003/06/05 : CIA-RDP84-00780R004200110006-0

Approved For Release 2003/06/05 : CIA-RDP84-00780R004200110006-0

SECRET

OGC 71-1456

1 October 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Catastrophe Coverage for Agency Employees

25X1 1. A meeting was held today with the following participants:
Colonel L. K. White, Mr. William E. Colby, Mr. John W. Coffey, [redacted] and Mr. John S. Warner.

2. After a brief review of the background, Colonel White indicated that the work on this subject should go forward. He indicated that this was the direction in which he was sure the Director of Central Intelligence wished to go. In approving further work, Colonel White indicated that he was not intending to commit himself to anything. The tasks to be done are to develop a rationale by which it can be determined that the expenditures are necessary for the performance of functions of the Agency and also to flesh out the basic concepts of the coverage to be afforded.

3. Colonel White stated he believed that a strong part of the rationale could be related to our early retirement policy.

25X1 4. Colonel White requested that Mr. Houston take on the assignment to see how the annual premium of $350,000 could be paid
[redacted]

5. Unrelated to the above, there was some discussion between Colonel White and Mr. Colby concerning the size [redacted] It was suggested by Mr. Colby that a paper be prepared to have available in the event the Agency needed to defend [redacted] for some reason

25X

25X

SECRET

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

before either a congressional committee or the Office of Management and Budget. Colonel White gave his opinion that we should not initiate any such briefing but agreed that the paper should be prepared.

25X

JOHN S. WARNER
Acting General Counsel

25X1

cc: 